

FACTS ON TAP

“You don't have to get liquored to have a great time. In fact, you'll have many great memories of your college years if drinking isn't a focus. So don't let myths influence you to be under the influence.”

Dr. Paul Chabot travels the country speaking about topics that make a difference. He has the experience, personality and passion as a leader in the public speaking forum to touch lives and impact organizations.

In college, Paul was a Fraternity Founder and President; Resident Hall Advisor; College Radio DJ; University Ambassador; New Student Orientation Advisor; Student Conduct Judicial Officer and awarded Greek Man of the Year and Student Leader of the Year. In the community, Paul served as a University Police Officer; White House Advisor, Naval Intelligence LT Commander and Iraq War Veteran.

He has provided keynote presentations on college campuses in 48-states and is regularly seen on TV networks across America.
